THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI PANABAKA LAKSHMI): (a) and (b) According to Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) spinach leaves contain several active compounds including flavonoids with antioxidative, anti proliferative and anti inflammatory properties. A powerful water-soluble, natural antioxidant mixture (NAO), which specially inhibits the lipoxygenase enzyme, was isolated from spinach leaves. NAO has been found to be nonmutagenic and has shown promising anticarcinogenic effects in few experimental model such as skin and prostrate cancer. In addition 10g of spinach will provide 26 calories, 2.0 g of protein, 73 mg calcium 1.14 mg of iron, 2740 mg B-carotene, 28 mg of vitamin C.

(c) and (d) the spinach (Palak) is traditionally consumed by people in India. Though there is no specific action plan to encourage its use exclusively, many national programmes and nutritionists encourage the consumption of Green Leafy Vegetables (GLVs).

Amount for National Family Welfare Programme

†955. SHRI LAXMINARAYAN SHARMA: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the amount allocated to all the States of the country for National Family Welfare Programme for the year 2003-04 by Government;

(b) whether the amount is still available under the same head;

(c) the amount allocated to each of the States during the year 2004-05 and the amount provided to the States sc far; and

(d) by when the remaining amount would be provided?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRIMATI PANABAKA LAKSHMI): (a) An amount of Rs. 2583.57 crores was released to the States through their Budget and Rs. 669.87 crores was released directly to the registered Societies in different States for the National Family Welfare Programme during the year 2003-04. Thus, a total of Rs. 3253.44 crores was released to the States.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) The unspect balances lying with the registered Societies are available for utilisation under the same head in the subsequent year(s). However, the unspent balances out of the funds released through the State Budget are available in subsequent years after revalidation.

(c) The amount of grants-in-aid allocated and the amount released to each State so far during the year 2004-05 are given in Statement (See below).

(d) The fourth and last instalment of the funds released through the Budget will be released by the end of December 2004. However, for other schemes, the grants will be released in due course during the financial year depending on the demand from the States and receipt of utilisation certificates of the grants released earlier.
